MILITARY TERMS

Things to remember when using a military vocabulary:

A "rookie" is a recruit.
An officer never "enlists." He is commissioned by the President of the United States. Only private soldiers, including corporals and sergeants, can "enlist."

To be "drafted" means to be forced into the military or naval service.

To "volunteer" means to go into the service willingly.

"Rank and file" do not mean officers and enlisted men. "Rank" is a row of soldiers and "file" represents a man in the front rank with the man or men directly behind him.

"Squad" is part of a company.

A captain commands a company and he has under him a first lieutenant and a second lieutenant.

A major commands a battalion which is made up of four companies. A regiment is commanded by a colonel and it comprises three battalions, so that a regiment is made up of 12 companies.

The new army law abolishes the grade of brigadier-general. Hereafter, if that law passes, a colonel will jump directly to major-general.

A general of the army corresponds to an admiral of the navy. Lieutenant-general ranks with a vice-admiral and a major-general with rear admiral.

Since Dewey's death there is no American admiral and we have no vice-admirals. Neither is there a general or lieutenant-general. Our chief of staff is a major-general.

The titles of lieutenant-general and general, vice-admiral and admiral must be especially created by act of Congress.

President Wilson is commander-in-chief of both army and navy, and has the right to take direct command of the fleet or the army of a million men. Every President during his term of office stands at the top of both the army and the navy—stands there as the supreme commander.

He can dismiss any officer, however high or low the rank. He appoints all officers.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

STANNARD

W. S. Bartlett and granddaughter, Miss Alice Rogers were in Greensboro Bend on business Tuesday.

Ollie Rogers received word from his brother, Ray, who is in a United States Army Service Camp in Florida that he was ill in a hospital and unable to go across with his regiment.

Celar G. Gochie is expected home Wednesday from camp in New York to attend his wife's funeral. She died of pneumonia after several days' illness.

Grace May Vance Gochie was born in Ipsbury 30 years ago and received her education at Barton where she graduated in 1907 class, who took an excursion trip to Washington, D. C. At the time of her death she wore her class ring with 1907 stamped thereon. Their little son, Glendon, died May 1915, and was buried in Stannard cemetery.

Mrs. Gochie has been a successful public school teacher for the last 10 years. Her funeral will be held at the home of her father-in-law, Wm. Gochie, in Greensboro. Her father and mother from South Albany were with her during her illness.

Her three brothers, Earl, Orlo, who is at U. S. A. Camps, and Charlie of South Albany will attend the funeral. Rev. N. A. Shaw will officiate. Beautiful flowers from friends and relatives tell of the love and esteem by which she was cherished by all who knew her and especially by her school children who will never forget the quiet beautiful way in which she made the daily work a pleasure.

Mrs. Floesie Smith, wife of Ralph Smith, who has been at her father's, L. P. Garrett in Wheelock, ill with influenza, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Eliza Dezan sold $40 worth of lambs Monday and has 15 left to winter.

Mrs. Laura Dezan has gone to Wolcott to care for her mother, Mrs. Charles Lowrey, who is ill with influenza.

Mrs. Meta Kimball is at Norman King's, caring for them. Mr. King is better but Mr. King is not so well.

Mrs. Ernest Smith is at Will Clary's in Greensboro, helping care for her sister, Mrs. Clary, who is ill as is the whole family with influenza.

Wrigley Gives Tinfoil to the Government

To help meet the needs of the government, Wrigley's will discontinue the use of tinfoil as a wrapping for "Juicy Fruit" chewing gum, in order to release this valuable material to Uncle Sam.

Hundreds of thousands of pounds per week of tinfoil will thus be made available to the government, it is said. "Juicy Fruit" will hereafter appear in the hermetically sealed pink wrapper same as "Spearment."

"Doublemint" will also be wrapped in waxed pink paper, instead of green.

NO GEESSE IN GERMANY

The Market is Bare of a Popular Fowl

New York, Oct. 24—German efforts to obtain geese from Poland and Ukraine virtually have failed and the German market is practically bare of the fowl, says the Cologne Gazette. An organization charged with the duty of arranging imports of geese from Poland, and other occupied territories in the east stated that between 400,000 and 800,000 geese had been ordered in those districts but the actual receipts amounted to only 50,000. Ukraine had promised to export 1,000,000 geese but owing to unexpected difficulties, not one was sent to Germany.
